Etiquette

People around the world say hello and goodbye in different ways. In Asia, many people bow when they greet each other. This might seem strange to someone in the Middle East. There, men sometimes greet each other with a kiss on the cheek. In most countries people shake hands. But in America and Europe the handshake is firm, while in Asia it is weaker. So what do you do when you meet when you visit another country? Don't let these traditions confuse you. Just be polite. When you meet, say "Pleased to meet you" and ask how are you? When it is time to leave, say "It was nice meeting you and I hope we meet again."

Get ready!
 1 Before you read the passage, talk about these questions.
 1. What do you say and do when you meet a friend?
 2. Do people bow when they greet in your country? What do you think of that?

Introduction Etiquette

Imagine you are at a conference, talking to a colleague. Suddenly an old friend greets you. Of course you are happy to see her and so start talking excitedly. Stop! What about the colleague? Don't leave her alone. Introduce your friend and colleague by saying "It is nice to meet..." or "Let me introduce you to...". Make sure each person understands the relationship with the other, and mention what two have in common and what the conversation is that direction. This way none of them will feel left out.
